

Dinner and movie at EpiCentre

Published Wednesday, December 17, 2008
by Torell Taylor, For The Charlotte Post

The EpiCentre Theaters and Mez Restaurant in uptown Charlotte is now open and ready for moviegoers who enjoy an avant-garde movie experience and plush ambiance.

On Dec. 10 Epicentre Theaters and Mez Restaurant had a gala to celebrate their grand opening.

Guests entered the theater by gliding up neon lit escalators that led to the second floor where they mingled and conversed about the trendy atmosphere.

EpiCentre Theaters is combined with Mez to create an exclusive and upscale environment. Mez's earmark décor features high ceilings, a tawny intimate lounge and an alluring view of uptown. Mez also includes three bars and swanky sitting areas in its design. Mez's cuisine is prepared by award winning Miami chef Klime Kovaceski.

The state-of-the-art theater features multiple movie screens, oversized loveseats, and adult admittance after 7 p.m. The theater also has VIP seating which can be purchased online up to a week before movie showtimes.

The theater is unique, allowing moviegoers to take food and alcoholic beverages from Mez into the theater during the movie.

For more information visit epicentret heaters.com and mezcharlotte.com